Nalla Narasimha Reddy group of institutions organized a Workshop on "Financial Wellness" in association with National Securities Depository Ltd (NSDL) in MBA Seminar hall.

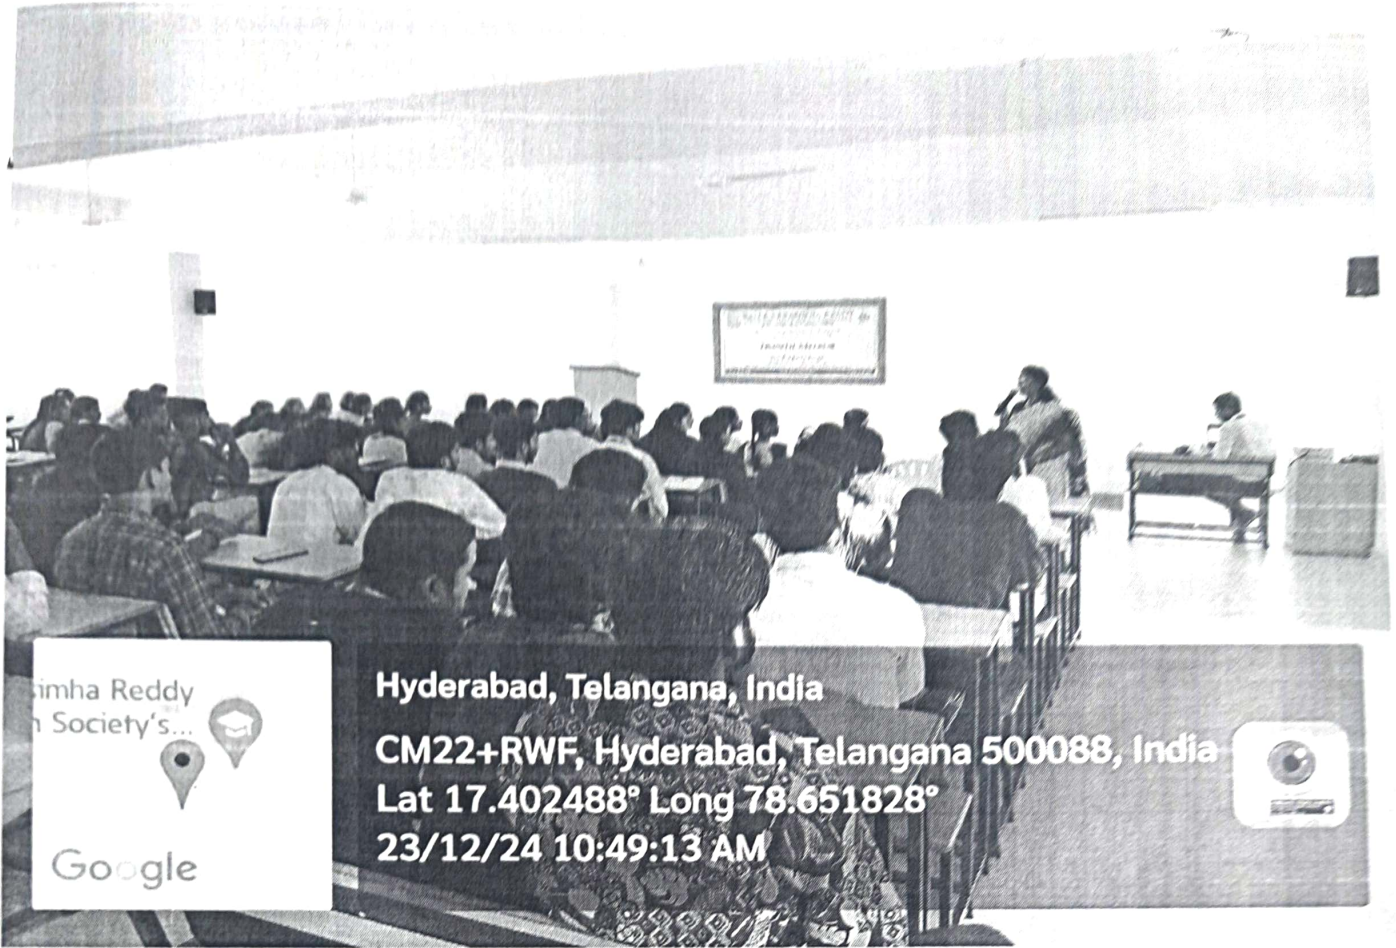

In her speech she highlighted several investment options like gold, real estate, shares, mutual funds, bonds, fixed deposits, post office schemes, national pension schemes and other investment opportunities. Highlighting the importance of investments at early age, she stated that timing is not important but the time period to stay with market plays key role in creation of wealth development. She stated that students should think about investment in equities besides traditional investment options like gold and real estate. She pointed out that real estate investment can also be done in the name of REIT which is more beneficial and secured than physical investment on land. She suggested that these days investments became online mode and more transparent than earlier days. She also warned that investments are subject to market risk but in long run these are going to be mitigated by good returns. She enforced to take proper guidance from the expert to invest in stock market. NSDL (National Securities Depository Limited) and CDSL (Central Depository Services Limited) are both Indian depositories that store and trade securities electronically. NSDL is supported by the National Stock Exchange (NSE), the Unit Trust of India, and the Industrial Development Bank of India. CDSL is supported by the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE), the Bank of India, and the State Bank of India. NSDL offering may services like account maintenance, Demat accounts, Remat accounts, market transfer, off market transfer, inter market transfer, inter depository transfer, pledge, margin pledge and other services which make helps investor to made their investments easy to transfer, pledge and other services.

She explained about live trading with the help of projector and pattern of investment trials and how to choose particular stock in different portfolios. All students are practiced in and after the session. At the end students are allowed for questions, the doubts are clarified by the speaker, she also explained about the role various controlling bodies in safe guarding of their principal investment. The morning session is concluded by 12:30pm and the participants are allowed for lunch, the session is concluded by the feedback by the students, vote of thanks by the senior professor and the memento presentation to the resource person by the Dean, SoMS.
