REPORT ON

Teachers Day Celebration Programme- 2026

The School of Pharmacy at Nalla Narasimha Reddy Education Society's Group of Institutions (NNRG SOP) celebrated Teachers' Day on September 5, 2026, with great enthusiasm and respect in the Seminar Hall. The programme was organized by the students to honour their teachers and acknowledge their invaluable contributions to education, personal growth, and the development of future pharmacy professionals. The celebration reflected the deep respect, gratitude, and affection that students hold for their mentors.

The programme commenced with an inspiring address by the Dean of the School of Pharmacy, who highlighted the significant role of teachers in shaping students' knowledge, character, values, and professional aspirations. He emphasized that a teacher should be more than an instructor delivering lectures and should instead serve as a true guru, mentor, and guide who inspires students to achieve excellence in both academic and personal life. He also stressed the importance of fostering discipline, critical thinking, ethical values, confidence, and a sense of responsibility among students. The Dean appreciated the initiative and efforts of the final-year B. Pharmacy students in organizing the event and creating a memorable occasion to express their gratitude to the faculty.

Adding to the spirit of celebration, the students organized a series of entertaining games and interactive activities for the teachers. These activities brought smiles, laughter, and excitement to the gathering, providing faculty members with an opportunity to participate in enjoyable moments beyond their regular academic responsibilities. The games created a lively and friendly atmosphere, strengthening the bond between teachers and students. The winners were felicitated with prizes in recognition of their enthusiastic participation, making the celebration even more enjoyable.

As a gesture of love and appreciation, the students presented tokens of gratitude to each faculty member, acknowledging their dedication, patience, guidance, and continuous support. These thoughtful gestures symbolized the students' heartfelt appreciation for the teachers' efforts in nurturing their talents, overcoming academic challenges, and preparing them for future professional responsibilities. The celebration also served as a reminder that the influence of a good teacher extends far beyond the classroom and leaves a lasting impression on students' lives.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across all years of the B. Pharmacy programme and faculty members of the School of Pharmacy. The collective involvement of students and teachers contributed to the success of the programme and created an atmosphere filled with happiness, respect, and togetherness. The celebration concluded on a memorable note, reinforcing the importance of the teacher–student relationship and the values of gratitude, mutual respect, and lifelong learning.

Overall, the Teachers' Day celebration at NNRG School of Pharmacy was a meaningful and memorable occasion that recognized the dedication of the teaching fraternity and celebrated their indispensable role in shaping the next generation of pharmacy professionals. The event was a sincere expression of appreciation for the teachers whose knowledge, encouragement, and mentorship continue to inspire students to learn, grow, and excel in their academic and professional journeys.
