

A Report on NNRG -National Level Model United Nations on 4th & 5th March 2025

The Department of Humanities and Sciences at NNRG launched its two-day National Level Model United Nations (MUN) on 4 March 2025, with an impressive array of participants and distinguished guests. The event, which has garnered registration from 106 students, began with an inspiring welcome address by Ms. Y.Rajya Laxmi, Assistant Professor of English and Convenor of NNRG MUN'2K25. In her speech, she highlighted the significance of MUNs in nurturing global awareness, diplomatic skills, and leadership capabilities while wishing the participants an enriching experience.

The inaugural address was delivered by Dr. C.V. Krishna Reddy, Director of NNRG, who expressed his excitement at welcoming delegates from esteemed institutions such as VNRVJIET, CMR, and shreyas engineering college. He encouraged the participants to engage in thought-provoking discussions and debates throughout the event. The agenda for the MUN includes two key sessions: AIPPM on analysing the impact of reservation policies on access to education, healthcare, and employment opportunities, particularly in light of budgetary provisions, and DISEC on addressing the militarization of AI and cyber warfare, focusing on ethical dilemmas, security threats, and the future of global conflict.

Dr. E. Chandra Shekar (HoD, Humanities and Sciences), Dr. G. Janardhana Raju (Dean, School of Engineering), Dr. T. Ravindra Reddy (Dean, School of Management and Sciences), and Dr. Ch. Krishna Mohan (Dean, School of Pharmacy), Dr I Sirisha, Co-ordinator, Department of English and faculty members from various department attended the inaugural session, underscoring the institution's interdisciplinary approach to education. The event has seen an overwhelming response from both students and faculty.

With a focus on fostering critical thinking, diplomacy, and global citizenship, the National Level MUN at NNRG is set to provide an intellectually stimulating experience for all delegates, ensuring a platform for vibrant exchanges and future leaders.

