Mr Phani K Arava Director - SAT InfoTech Pvt Ltd, Hyderabad acted as Resource Person -cum- chief guest for Internal Hackathon on SAP-Business Technology Platform. While speaking Mr Phani K Arava enlightened about the importance of a new tool namely Business Technology Platform in SAP. SAP-BTP is an innovation platform optimised for SAP applications in the cloud. Mr Phani asked all the students to sign up in DISCORD platform and to join in the group. Mr Phani also asked to configure the DISCORD link with GITHUB repository named by NNRGBTP Hackathon. A task has been assigned to all the students which is Based on a chain of electronics store which is specialized in selling electronic goods. He asked to create an application which help the electronic store to manager to purchase of the goods, manage to stock in the stores and sales of the goods.

At the end of the event, Mr Phani was felicitated by the Institution Director Dr CV Krishna Reddy accompanied by the IIC-Convener Dr G Janardhana Raju & HoD-CSE Dr K Rameswaraiah. 68 B.Tech CSE IV year students are participated.

Dr C V Krishna Reddy, director NNRESGI also explained the importance of such events and encouraged the students to participate in more events to enhance logical programming, design and testing skills of the students enormously. Dr G Janardhana Raju, IIC-CONVENER & DEAN School of Engineering, addressed the importance of such kind of technical events which were being conducted. Hence there is an urgent need of student attention towards such events. Mr. Dr K Rameswaraiah Head CSE encouraged the students to participate in such kind of Hackathon, and also motivated the students to improve their problem-solving skills by learning how to develop applications to solve real world problems. And also, he mentioned 68 Students were participating from CSE department. This is second cycle; In the first cycle the expectations were not up to the mark but this time we are going to reach your objective. Finally Dr. G. Subba Rao IIC-member has proposed vote of thanks by expressing gratitude to all who had involved in this event.
