Dr.Anand after his graduation and post graduation in Pharmacy from Andhra University, Visakhapatnam, he did his research (Ph.D) from Universiti Sains Malaysia, Malaysia. During his academic tenure, he had always has passion towards research and the idea of becoming an entrepreneur has embedded in his thoughts.

After education he served teaching profession, trained the students and motivated them towards research and establishing start-ups. Then to taste the flavor of pharmaceutical industry, he took the assignment of manager at various levels handling Clinical trials, medical affairs, managing the documentation, regulatory affairs, filing ANDA etc. In this process he served Virchow Biotech (P) Ltd. Madhapur, Hyderabad, Makro Care Clinical Research Ltd. Madhapur, Hyderabad, and Dr. Reddy's Laboratories, IPDO Bachupally, Hyderabad. This gave him a deep insight into the facilities, operations and necessary experience within the Pharmaceutical sector.

With all the experience he gained, now the time has come to materialize his thoughts of becoming an entrepreneur. He knew which the correct area to begin a start-up is. In Jan, 2021 he started his own firm by name Scoat Pharma Pvt Ltd. Bollaram, Hyderabad for which he is the Director. His Job responsibilities are mainly Conception and development of new manufacturing facility to produce Pharmaceutical Pellets and DC Granules and looking after the complete operations of the manufacturing facility.

His story is really inspiring and paves a way to become an innovator and entrepreneur. Along with his past experiences he had also thrown light on granulation and formulation at large scale, importance of raw materials, entrepreneurship in the area of granules and other pharmaceutical ingredients. Dr.Anand also emphasized on the role of artificial intelligence and data science in the area of pharmacy, and upgrading of the knowledge in all aspects.
