The following agenda items have been discussed:

Item No: 1: To report the program on Keynote on Engineers Role in Nation Development by Dr. N.V. Ramana Rao, Registrar, JNTUH, Hyderabad.

As per the decision of the last IQAC meeting, a program on Keynote on Engineers Role in Nation Development was organized in the Institution for the benefit of all the Faculty members. Dr. N.V. Ramana Rao, Registrar of JNTUH was invited to be the Guest to speak on the occasion. Faculty members from all the Departments have attended the program and enlightened with the lecture on Engineers Role in Nation Development.

Item No: 2: Attending of Faculty Development Programs.

The Chairman has suggested that all the faculty should attend at least one FDP program with a duration of 1 week in reputed organizations like IITs, NITs and Universities. This is mandatory for all the faculty members and the IQAC convener has been advised to ascertain that all the faculty members, including HoDs should mandatorily attend the FDP Programs during summer vacation and submit a report on FDP they have attended as soon as they resume their duties after availing the summer vacation.

Item No : 3: Teaching-Learning Process

The Chairman expressed his views on enhancement of teaching learning process by adopting various techniques using new methodologies to enable the students to acquainted well with the subjects. The Chairman also said that faculty should focus their attention on teaching and they should help and guide the weak students in order to understand the subject well and thereby getting good marks in the end-semester examinations.

The Chairman thanked all the members and concluded the meeting at 4 P.M.
