Report on Bathukamma

29-09-2016

NNRESGI celebrated Bathukamma festival with traditional gaiety and fervor on 29-09-2016. The function was organized in the foot ball court. Students sang Bathukamma song with women staff and non teaching staff proved students have that interest to preserve our culture. The women faculty, non teaching staff and students gathered various flowers and decorated the campus. Dr.C.V.Krishna Reddy director of the institution asked the students to participate in the celebrations. Women staff, non teaching women and students have come in traditional attire to celebrate the festival. The arrangements were all in their place with the collective efforts from both teaching and nonteaching staff of NNRG. Director, Deans of respective schools were present in the celebration. All the students have taken photos of their zealous celebrations at campus.
